Admiralty-Office, January 3, 1804.

Copy of a Letter from Commodore Hood, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Leeward Islands, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated on board His Majesty's Ship Centaur, off Guadalupe, the 6th November 1803.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to enclose, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, Copy of a Letter I received from Captain Graves, of His Majesty's Ship Blenheim, giving an Account of the Capture of a Privateer by the Boats of that Ship, in Fort Royal Bay, Martinique.

The Capture of Two more of the Enemy's Privateers is set forth in a Letter from Captain Young-husband, of the Osprey. The brave and handsome Conduct of Lieutenant Henderson, and those in the Boats under his Command, is truly meritorious; and I trust such Display of the Gallantry of our Officers and Men will soon make these Piccaroons repent their Temerity. On the 26th Ult. between Tobago and Grenada, the Centaur, after a Chase of Seven Hours, captured the Vigilante Schooner Privateer, of Two Guns and Forty Men, well armed with Musketry: The Capture of this Vessel is particularly fortunate, as she has, from her superior Sailing and Management, done much Injury to the Trade.

I have also the Satisfaction to acquaint you of the Recapture of the Brig Earl St. Vincent, from Dublin bound to Barbadoes, and a Swedish Schooner by His Majesty's Sloop St. Lucia; they had been captured Three Days before by the L'Harmonie Privateer, of Martinique, and who only escaped the Vigilance of Captain Shipley, by throwing her Guns overboard, and sawing down her Gunwales.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

SAM. HOOD.

Blenheim, off Martinique, 16th September 1803.

SIR,
YESTERDAY at Two P. M. I discovered a small Schooner Privateer, apparently just returned from her Cruise, and endeavouring to get into Port Royal; it being nearly calm, I directed Lieutenant Furber, of His Majesty's Ship Blenheim, under my Command, to take the Pinnace, and Lieutenant Campbell, the Barge, and to cut her off: she was rowing with her Sweeps, but the Boats nevertheless came up with her in about an Hour and a Half, and in a most spirited Manner, under the Fire of Grape and Musketry, boarded and carried her.

I am happy to add, that no Lives were lost; the Enemy had one Man wounded: she is called the Fortunée; mounts Two Carriage Guns, and had Twenty-nine Men on board.

I am, &c.

THO. GRAVES.

Commodore Hood, &c. &c. &c.

His Majesty's Sloop Osprey, Off Martinique

SIR, October 31, 1803.

I Beg Leave to acquaint you, that on the 26th Instant I discovered a suspicious Sail under the Land of Trinidad, and immediately chased; but on arriving within about Four Miles of her it fell Calm; and as I was now convinced she was an Enemy's Privateer from the Number of Sweeps she was rowing, and having no Chance of coming up to her in the Osprey, I sent Three Boats to attack her, under the Command of Lieutenant Robert Henderson; the Cutter in which he was, rowing much faster than the other Boats, he, without waiting to be joined by them, in the most brave and determined Manner, and under a heavy Fire from the Guns and Musketry of the Schooner, boarded and captured the French Schooner Privateer La Ressource, mounting Four Four-Pounders, and having on board Forty-three Men, Two of whom were killed and Twelve wounded.

Lieutenant Henderson, with Three Seamen, are slightly wounded, and one dangerously; the Cutter had only Seventeen Seamen in her, who all behaved with the utmost Bravery.

I have further to inform you, that having put Lieutenant Collier, and Sixteen Men on board the Prize, he the next Day chased and captured La Mini French Schooner Privateer of one Gun and Twenty-one Men.

I am, &c.

GEORGE YOUNGHUSBAND.

*Copy of a Letter from the Right Honorable Lord Keith,
K. B. Admiral of the Blue, &c. to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated on board His Majesty's Ship the Monarch, off Ramsgate, the 6th Instant.*

SIR,

I ENCLOSE, for their Lordships' Information, a Copy of a Letter which I have received from Captain Owen, of His Majesty's Ship Immortalité, acquainting me, that His Majesty's Gun-Brig the Archer, and the Griffin hired Cutter, (the Crew of the former being reinforced by Lieutenant Payne and some of the Immortalité's Men,) had captured
One of the Enemy's Gun-Vessels, a Dogger, a Schuyt, and Two Blankenberg Fishing-Boats, apparently Part of a Convoy proceeding to Boulogne.

I have the Honor to be, &c. KEITH.

*Immortalité, at Anchor on the Edge of the Bank de Baas, Boulogne, S. E.
Half S. Four or Five Miles, Wed-* nesday, January 4, 1804.

HAVING last Night reinforced the Crew of the Archer with some Men from this Ship, and pushed her in close Shore, she was fortunate enough to fall in with and capture the French Lugger Gun-Vessel, No. 432, mounting an Eighteen and a Twelve-Pounder, commanded by an Ensign de Vaisseau, with Five Seamen, a Lieutenant, and Twenty-six Grenadiers of the Thirty-sixth Regiment of the Line, some of whom, with Two Seamen, escaped in her Boat during the running Fight, which she
Gun and Musketry. The Archer had Part of her
Rigging cut, but no one materially hurt on either Side.

The Archer and Griffin afterwards captured a Dogger, a Schuyt, and Two Blankenberg Fishing-
Boats, which the Prisoners report to be Part of a Convoy, which, with a Prame of Sixteen Guns, and Five or Six Gun-Vessels escaped under the Land in the dark; some, I understand, laden with Provisions and Stores. The Schuyt has Gin, and the Fishing Boats Timbers and Knees for Boats; each Vessel had Three or Four Soldiers on board.

Lieutenant Sheriff, of the Archer, has done every Thing I could possibly wish or expect from his Zeal; and Lieutenant Payne, of this Ship, who commanded the Boat and Party assisting the Archer, executed that Service with his usual Alacrity, and the Commander of the Griffin has my Thanks for the Share he bore in bringing off the latter Vessels, which was effected under a very heavy Fire from the Shore, to which they wore as close as possible.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) E. W. C. R. OWEN.
The Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B.
&c. &c. &c.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twenty-second Day of June One thousand eight hundred and three, prohibiting the transporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom, any Pig Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, will expire upon the Eleventh Day of this instant January: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whosoever do at any Time, for the Space of Six Months from the said Eleventh Day of this instant January, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, or do ship or lade any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, or Ship or lade any of the Articles above-mentioned on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, without Leave or Permission first being had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the Exportation of Naval Stores, and more effectually to prevent the Exportation of Salt-Petre, Arms, and Ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:" But it is nevertheless His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or any other Ships or Vessels or Boats in the Service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on board such Quantities of Naval Stores as may be necessary for the Use of such Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage, or by Licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being; nor to the Exportation of the said several Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies: Provided, that upon the Exportation of any of the said Articles for the Purposes of Trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards and Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of such Articles do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered Outwards, and for the Purposes specified, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been all duly landed at the Places for which they were entered Outwards: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

WAR OFFICE.

NOTICE TO OFFICERS IN THE ARMY.

SEVERAL Officers of the Army having represented that they have been required by the Assessors under the Property Act, in the Districts in which they are or have been stationed, to make Returns of their Military Income, in order to their being assessed for the same in such Districts, Notice is hereby given, that all Officers of the Army, whether on Full or Half-Pay, will be assessed for their Military Income, under the Directions of the Commissioners appointed by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for assessing the Army in general.

Dated at the War-Office, this 14th Day of January 1804.

By Order of the Commissioners for assessing the Pay and Allowances of Officers in the Army, Cha. Hamilton, Clerk.

Instructions for the Guidance of Officers in making out their Military Income, are now preparing.

Whitehall, 21st January 1804.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that in the Night of Thursday the 22d of December last, about Ten o'Clock, the Report of several Guns was heard in a Wood belonging to and near the House of Francis Ferrand Foljambe, Esq; of Osberton, in the County of Nottingham, whereupon William Hull his Gamekeeper, and several others of his Servants, went out to endeavour to apprehend the Offenders, and having pursued them from the Wood where the Report was first heard to another at some Distance, they all (except William Holmes, one of the Servants of Mr. Foljambe, who was on Horseback) entered the Wood, and in the Middle of it found one William Atkins armed with a Gun, which he presented, threatening to blow out the Brains of the first that came near him; and it was not till after considerable Resistance Atkins was secured: And whereas during the Struggle with Atkins the Report of another Gun was heard on the Outside of the Wood, and immediately afterwards a Cry as of a Person in Agony, and thereupon several of the Servants of the said Francis Ferrand Foljambe, Esq; ran to the Spot, and found there the said William Holmes lying on the Ground dangerously wounded; and the said William Holmes hath deposed, that seeing two Men, one in a Blue Jacket, the other in a Smock Frock, he rode up to the Man in a Jacket, and endeavoured to secure him, on which the Man immediately fired at him, and then, with his Companion, effected his Escape: And whereas the Circumstances of Two Men of the Names of ——— Smith and William Thornton having been seen in Company with Atkins on the Evening of the Commission of this atrocious Outrage in the Dress described by William Holmes; and it appearing that the said William Thornton that Evening taught Powder and Shot at Retford; and neither Smith nor Thornton having since been seen or heard of in the Neighbourhood where they resided, strongly authorize the Suspicion that they were Parties in the Perpetration of the Atrocity;

His Majesty, therefore, for the better and more speedily apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of the said Offenders (except the Person who actually fired the Gun, and wounded the said William Holmes) who shall make such Discovery of his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, as that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

C. YORKE.

And, as a further Encouragement for the Discovery of such Offender or Offenders, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons making the same, (except the Person before excepted,) to be paid upon the Conviction of such Offender or Offenders, by the said Francis Ferrand Foljambe, Esq.

Whitehall, January 21, 1804.

*W*HEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the King, that a most daring and scandalous Outrage took place in the City of Chester, on Wednesday the 28th Day of December last, wherein divers Persons, at present unknown, proceeded to destroy the Gates of the Gaol of the said City, and to deliver by Force a Person confined therein;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the daring and scandalous Outrage abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Persons actually concerned in destroying or pulling down, or aiding or assisting to pull down, the Gates of the said Gaol,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

C. YORKE.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

Whitehall, January 14, 1804.

*W*HEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the King, that, on the Morning of Sunday the 8th Instant, some evil-disposed Person or Persons did wilfully and maliciously set Fire, in Three Places, to the Premises of Mr. Copland, of Coleman-Street, in the City of London, after having robbed the House;

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First and Second, and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brads, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon Indictment or Information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months, and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majesty's Dominions, to exercise or teach the said Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any such Foreign Country, exercising any of the said Trades, shall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the Country where such Artificers shall be, or by any Person authorised by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this Realm: such Persons shall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Administrator, or of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom, by Descent, Devise, or Purchase, and shall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom, to His Majesty's Use, and shall be deemed Alien, and out of His Majesty's Protection.

Upon Complaint made, upon Oath, before any Justice of Peace, that any Person is endeavouring to seduce any such Artificer, or that any such Artificer hath contracted or is preparing to go out of His Majesty's Dominions, for the Purposes aforesaid, such Justice may send his Warrant to bring the Person complained of before him, or before some other Justice; and if it shall appear by the Oath of One Witness, or by Confession, that he was guilty of any of the said Offences, such Justice may bind him to appear at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions: And if such Person shall refuse to give Security, the Justice may commit him to Gaol till the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions, and until he shall be delivered by due Course of Law. And if any such Artificer shall be convicted, upon Indictment, of any such Promise, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas, for the Purpose aforesaid, he shall give such Security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's Dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till Security given.

If any of the above Offences shall be committed in Scotland, the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Justiciary or the Circuits there.

Indictment or Information in the King's Bench at Dublin, if such Offence be committed in Ireland; the Person so convicted shall, for every Artificer contracted with or seduced, forfeit FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted for Twelve Calendar Months, and until Forfeiture be paid: And in case of a subsequent Offence of the same Kind, the Persons so again offending shall forfeit, for every Person contracted with or seduced, ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted, for Two Years, and until such Forfeiture be paid.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's Warehouses, all such Tools or Utensils prohibited to be exported, as such Officer shall find on board any Vessel not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all Tools so seized shall, after Condemnation, be publicly sold to the best Bidder; and one Moiety of the Produce shall be to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any Vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said Tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on board his Vessel, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the Penalties inflicted upon Persons exporting the Tools; and, if the Vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his Employment, and be incapable of any Employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any Entry outward, or sign any Cocket or Suffrance for the Shipping or Exporting of any of the said Tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his Office, and be incapable of any Office under His Majesty.

One Moiety of the Forfeitures shall be applied to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same.

Dated at the War-Office, this 14th Day of January 1804.

By Order of the Commissioners for assessing the Pay and Allowances of Officers in the Army, Cha. Hamilton, Clerk.

Instructions for the Guidance of Officers in making out their Military Income, are now preparing.

Whitehall, 21st January 1804.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the King, that in the Night of Thursday the 22d of December last, about Ten o'Clock, the Report of several Guns was heard in a Wood belonging to and near the House of Francis Ferrand Foljambe, Esq; of Osberton, in the County of Nottingham, whereupon William Hall his Gamekeeper, and several others of his Servants, went out to endeavour to apprehend the Offenders, and having pursued them from the Wood where the Report was first heard to another at some Distance, they all (except William Holmes, one of the Servants of Mr. Foljambe, who was on Horseback) entered the Wood, and in the Middle of it found one William Atkins armed with a Gun, which he presented, threatening to blow out the Brains of the first that came near him; and it was not till after considerable Resistance Atkins was secured: And whereas during the Struggle with Atkins the Report of another Gun was heard on the Outside of the Wood, and immediately afterwards a Cry as of a Person in Agony, and thereupon several of the Servants of the said Francis Ferrand Foljambe, Esq; ran to the Spot, and found there the said William Holmes lying on the Ground dangerously wounded; and the said William Holmes hath deposed, that seeing two Men, one in a

Blue Jacket, the other in a Smock-Frock, he rode up to the Man in a Jacket, and endeavoured to secure him, on which the Man immediately fired at him, and then, with his Companion, effected his Escape: And whereas the Circumstances of Two Men of the Names of ——— Smith and William Thornton having been seen in Company with Atkins on the Evening of the Commission of this atrocious Outrage in the Dress described by William Holmes; and it appearing that the said William Thornton that Evening bought Powder and Shot at Retford; and neither Smith nor Thornton having since been seen or heard of in the Neighbourhood where they resided, strongly authorize the Suspicion that they were Parties in the Perpetration of the Atrocity;

His Majesty, therefore, for the better and more speedily apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of the said Offenders (except the Person who actually fired the Gun, and wounded the said William Holmes) who shall make such Discovery of his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, as that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

C. YORKE.

And, as a further Encouragement for the Discovery of such Offender or Offenders, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons making the same, (except the Person before excepted,) to be paid upon the Conviction of such Offender or Offenders, by the said Francis Ferrand Foljambe, Esq.

Whitehall, January 21, 1804.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the daring and scandalous Outrage abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Persons actually concerned in destroying or pulling down, or aiding or assisting to pull down, the Gates of the said Gaol,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

C. YORKE.

LORD DUNCAN'S VICTORY.

Lloyd's Coffee-House, January 17, 1804.

At a Meeting of the Committee appointed to manage the Subscription raised for the Benefit of the Wounded, and the Families and Relatives of those who were Killed, in the Action of the 11th of October 1797.

WILLIAM PITT, Esq; in the Chair,

The following Report was read:

The Committee, on the 29th of October 1802, advertised, in Compliance with the Resolutions of a General Meeting of Subscribers, that "All Gratuities, not satisfactorily claimed within Twelve Months, should be appropriated as follows: "All Sums voted to Foreigners, and unclaimed, to be paid "to the Consuls, Ministers, Deacons, or Heads of Churches, "in London, of the Nation to which the Parties belonged, "for the Benefit of such sick or distressed Seamen of their "Nation as may frequent this Port in Times of Peace; and "the Gratuities voted to British Subjects, and those whose "supposed Countries cannot be ascertained, be given to charitable Institutions connected with the Commerce and "Navy of this Country."

The Committee report, that, agreeably to the above Resolution, they have endeavoured, by public Advertisements and other Channels, to find out those Foreigners, or their Families, (if any,) who had an honorable and a National Claim on the Funds of this Committee, for Services or Sufferings in Defence of this Country; and, where they have been unsuccessful, they have paid the Gratuities which the Parties would have been entitled to receive over to the Consuls or Heads of Churches of Foreign Nations, as directed in the preceding Resolution.

That, out of the Funds allotted to British Subjects, or those whose supposed Country could not be ascertained, and that have not yet been found out or claimed within the Time limited, the Committee have also been enabled to fulfil the Second Part of their Instructions, by giving to as Public and National Institutions connected with the Commerce and Navy of the United Kingdom.

The Committee, having, in their Report to the Public of the 9th July 1801, and the 29th October 1802, stated the Receipt and Appropriation of a Subscription, the Liberality of which kept Pace with the enterprising Spirit and Valour of British Seamen, beg briefly to state, that they have now finally closed their Trust and their Duty; and that they have expended (including 7959l. 10s. 3d. arising from Dividends and Interest on Navy and Exchequer Bills, &c.) the Sum of 53,446l. 12s. 1d. for the Relief and Support of One Thousand and Forty Claimants, including Thirty-four Cases not found-out.

It is with peculiar Pleasure that the Committee farther report, that they have received the strongest Testimonials and Assurances from every Part of the United Kingdom, and from Foreign Countries, that the Distribution of this Fund has not only given Comfort and Happiness to a numerous and meritorious Class of Men, as well as Settlement and Apprenticeship to Children, but that it has also had the happy Tendency of making the British Name and the British Navy respected at Home and Abroad.

The Committee have annexed a short Statement of the Total Receipts and Expenditure of their Fund; but they cannot take Leave of the Public without expressing their Acknowledgement of the unremitting Attention of Calverley Bewicke, Esq; their late worthy Chairman, to the Concerns of this Committee; and sincerely regret, that he did not live long enough to set his Signature to the final Report of those Measures which had met with his Concurrence and Sanction.

The Committee, at the same Time, feel it a Duty which they owe to William Vaughan, Esq; one of their Members, to express to him and to the Public their Sense of Obligation for his unwearied Zeal and tried Integrity in the arduous Task of attending to the Affairs of this Committee, from its Commencement to its Close.

Resolved,

That this Committee do approve of the foregoing Report and General Statement of the Account; and that the same be printed and published, signed by the Chairman.

WILLIAM PITT, Chairman.

Copy of a Letter from Commodore Hood, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the Leeward Islands, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated on board His Majesty's Ship the Centaur, off Martinique, the 26th November 1803.

SIR,

EARLY this Morning as the Centaur was passing the Cape de Salines, on the Island of Martinique, she was fired at, and several Shot exchanged in passing: I immediately directed Captain Maxwell to stand on far enough, that by tacking, we could fetch into Petit Ance D'Arlette, where we anchored, and landed the greater Part of the Marines under Captain Crozier, and Forty Seamen commanded by Lieutenants Maurice and Ayscough, to destroy it; on the first Alarm the National Guards had assembled to aid Fourteen Cannoniers of the Marine Artillery, stationed in the Battery, but by the rapid and active Movements of the Officers and Men on this Service, the Enemy had not Time to arrange themselves in Defence of the narrow and steep Path to the Eminence, where was planted a Brass Two-Pounder, and on the Approach of our Men, flew to the Morne, and so dispersed themselves in its thick Woods, that only one Cannonier fell into our Hands; the Battery, mounting Six Twenty-four-Pounders, was completely destroyed, and the Guns, &c. thrown over the Precipice; but, unfortunately, in the Explosion of the Magazine a little too soon, One Seaman was killed; Lieutenant Maurice, 1st of the Centaur, Captain Crozier and Lieutenant Walker, of the Marines, with Six Men, wounded, but only one private Marine badly.

On drawing near the Bay of Point D'Arlette, between the Grande and Petite Ance of that Name, we discovered a Battery of Three Guns, (Two proved to be Forty-two Pounders, the other a Thirty-two Pounder,) and People laying down; however the Ship was anchored in a Position to flank it, had they thought proper to annoy us, and Lieutenant Domett, with Lieutenant McLaughlan, of the Marines, threw the Guns over the Cliff, and burnt and destroyed the Carriages, Barracks, and Ammunition most perfectly, the People having abandoned it on their Approach; from this I promise myself much Aid to the blockading Ships should the Enemy send out a Reinforcement, and also very convenient for Anchoring.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

SAM. HOOD.

Admiralty-Office, January 28, 1804.

Copy of another Letter from Commodore Hood, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the Leeward Islands, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated on board His Majesty's Ship Centaur, at Sea, the 20th November 1803.

SIR,

I Herewith transmit you Copy of a Letter from Captain Graves, of His Majesty's Ship Blenheim, stating the Capture of the Harmonie Privateer, in Marin Bay, by the Boats of that Ship and the Drake, under the Orders of Captain Ferris; and the Surprise and Destruction of Fort Dunkirk, by the Marines under the Command of Lieutenant Beatie. The judicious Manner in which this Service was planned, the Gallantry and Zeal of those Officers who executed it, deserve my warmest Congratulations, and I beg Leave to give them my strongest Recommendation to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

SAM. HOOD.

*Blenheim off Martinique,
17th Nov. 1803.*

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that on the 14th Instant, the French Privateer Schooner L'Harmonie, with a Prize, having put into the Harbour of Marin in the Bay of St. Ann, Martinique, induced me to suggest a Plan for the Capture of this Vessel, more destructive to Commerce than any other which has appeared in these Seas; and for this Purpose I attempted, against a strong Sea Breeze and Lee Current, to beat up from off the Diamond Rock to the Place where she lay at Anchor. It was not until the 16th in the Morning that I was able to accomplish it, when, having reconnoitred the Harbour of Marin, together with the Batteries on each Side of it, and also one above the Town, I determined on the Attempt. I therefore ordered Sixty Seamen belonging to His Majesty's Ship under my Command, with Lieutenants Cole and Furber, and a Detachment of Sixty Marines of the same Ship, under the Command of Lieutenants Beatie and Boyd, to carry the Enterprize into Execution: The former in their Boats to attack the Privateer, and the latter at the same time to endeavour to surprise, or in any event to storm, Fort Dunkirk, a Battery of Nine Guns on the Starboard Side of the Harbour. It was necessary to do so, to cut off the Militia from rendezvousing on Marin Point, which, being immediately in the Track of coming out, and where doubtless they would have been joined by the Troops from the Fort, would have much annoyed the Boats on their Return. The Drake having joined me, and Captain Ferris volunteering his Services, I directed him to take the Command of the Seamen, and to add to them Fourteen from the Drake. All Things being prepared, the Boats with the Seamen towed by the Drake, and the Marines in Four Boats towed by the Swift Hired Cutter, at Eleven P. M. proceeded off the Mouth of Marin Harbour, and by estimating the Time it would take for the Boats to row up to the Privateer, which Vessel lay Three Miles from the Entrance of the Harbour, both Parties set off so timely as to commence the Attack at the same Instant; and I am happy to add, that about Three A. M. on the following Morning, by very spirited and judicious Attacks, both Parties succeeded; the Fort was completely surprised, the Prisoners, Fifteen in Number, taken, and sent on board the Cutter, the Guns were dismounted and spiked, their Carriages totally destroyed, and the Magazine blown up; the Barracks were spared, as a large and ripe Field of Canes adjoining must have inevitably been destroyed had they been let Fire to.

The Boats with the Scamen passed one Battery undiscovered, but the Privateer was on her Guard, and commenced a very heavy Fire on them, who nevertheless in the most prompt and gallant Manner boarded, and in a few Minutes carried her. Two Men were found dead on her Deck, and Fourteen were wounded; as many of the Enemy threw themselves into the sea, many must have been drowned.

I am sorry to add that the Blenheim had One Man killed, and Two wounded, and the Drake Three wounded, One dangerously.

The Harmonie was commanded by Citizen Noyer, had Eight Carriage-Guns, and Sixty-six Men at the Attack, Forty-four only of whom were found at the Time of Surrender. The Boats and Privateer repassed the Fort on the Larboard Side of the Harbour within Musquet Shot, but happily escaped from a heavy Fire unhurt.

The spirited Manner in which Captain Ferris led the Boats to the Attack, and the gallant Conduct of Lieutenants Cole and Furber, the Petty Officers, and Men on the Occasion, merit my warmest Praise; nor can I do too much Justice to the Conduct of Lieutenant Beatie, commanding the Detachment of Royal Marines, Lieutenant Boyd, the Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, who in the most soldier-like Manner, after being challenged and fired upon by Two Centinels, and perfectly ignorant of the Nature and Number of the Troops they had to contend with, pushed directly into the Fort with fixed Bayonets, when the Enemy cried for Quarter. By the Silence with which the Battery was carried, One Hundred Militia of the Fort of Saint Ann's were cut off from the Point of Rendezvous, and thus the Place, to answer all our Purposes, secured without the Loss of a Man.

Enclosed is an Account of the Guns rendered useless, and Stores destroyed, at Fort Dunkirk.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

THOMAS GRAVES.

Copy of another Letter from Commodore Hood, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels

at the Leeward Islands, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated at Sea, 2d December 1803.

SIR,

AS we lay at Anchor in Fort Royal Bay, Martinique, close to Cape des Salines, Yesterday Morning, a Schooner with a Sloop in tow, was working up from to Leeward; about Eight o'Clock being within Six Miles, and perceiving her Intention for St. Pierre's, I directed Captain Maxwell to weigh and give Chace, and was not discovered until all Sail was set, when the Schooner and Sloop separated; I sent the Sarah Advice Boat, after the Sloop, and the Schooner Ma Sophie, belonging to Guadeloupe, of Eight Guns (which were thrown overboard in the Chace,) and Forty-six Men, was captured by this Ship after a Run of Twenty-four Leagues; the Sloop her Prize, retaken by the Sarah, was cut out of Courland Bay, Tobago, having on board only a few Hogsheads of Sugar.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) SAM. HOOD.

P. S. Since writing the before mentioned, Lieutenant Domet, in the Vigilant Tender, with the Sarah Advice Boat, burnt a Schooner in Ance de Serron, of Seventy Tons, and destroyed the Battery Chateau Margot of Three Eighteen Pounders, without any Loss on our Part—A Party of the Enemy came down and fired on them, of which they killed one Man, and wounded some others.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Sir John Thomas Duckworth, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Jamaica, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated at Port Royal, the 19th November 1803.

SIR,

ACCOMPANYING this, I send you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Letter from Lieutenant Foley of the Hercule, commanding the Gipsy Tender, stating the Destruction of a French Privateer.

Captain Roberts of the Snake also sends me an Account of a French Privateer which he had been in Chace of the whole Day of the 10th Instant; and in endeavouring to avoid him after dark, got on Shore upon Rocky Point, near the East End of this Island. The Prisoners, Sixty in Number he has sent in.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

J. T. DUCKWORTH.

His Majesty's Schooner Gipsy, Port Royal,

SIR,

November 4, 1803.

I HAVE the Honor to inform you, that on the 19th of October last, at Four P. M. Cape Maize, bearing North, distant Six or Seven Leagues, I chased, and, after a Running Fight of Two Hours and Forty Minutes, drove on Shore, and completely destroyed a French Privateer Schooner, mounting Two long Eighteen-Pounders, and full of Men.

I should have endeavoured to get her off, but the Night being very dark, and the Wind freshening from the S. E. was obliged to make sail for the Safety of His Majesty's Schooner under my Command, and join the Packet, which Ship I saw safe, agreeable to your Orders.

I have, &c. E. K. FOLEY.

Sir J. T. Duckworth, K. B. Commander in Chief. &c. &c. &c.

Admiralty-Office, January 28, 1804.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Thornbrough to the Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B. Admiral of the Blue, &c. dated on board His Majesty's Ship the Ruby, off the Texel, the 17th Instant.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the Honor to inform your Lordship, that Captain Wooldridge, of His Majesty's Sloop Scourge, returned to me this Afternoon off the Texel, having cut out of the Vlie Roads an English Ship of Four Hundred Tons Burthen, laden with Timber, from Memel bound to Hull, which Ship he has sent to Yarmouth-Roads.

I beg Leave to observe to your Lordship, that, from the very intricate Passage into the Anchorage at this Season of the Year, which was planned by Captain Wooldridge himself, decidedly against the Opinion of his Pilots, and which succeeded in the fullest Extent, thereby depriving the Enemy of so valuable a Cargo, reflects no less Credit on him than it does on Lieutenant Hughes, who conducted, and the Officers and Men who executed, so hazardous an Enterprize, under the Fire of the Batteries on the Island, and so many other Disadvantages.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

EDW. THORNBROUGH.

*Scourge, off the Vlie Island,
January 11, 1804.*

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor of informing you, that in Execution of your Orders of Yesterday's Date, on my Arrival off the Vlie Land, in His Majesty's Sloop, I spoke the Prussian, from Amsterdam, who informed me, that a large Ship, with Prize Colours flying, was lying in the Vlie Roads, waiting a Wind to proceed up the Passage; and that he understood from the Pilots she was an English Ship, laden with Naval Stores; considering that to deprive the Enemy of a Ship of that Description was of material Consequence, I determined on attempting to cut her out; for which Purpose, after dark, His Majesty's Ship was anchored in the State Mille Passage, in Four and Half Fathom Water, and within Musket-Shot of the Shore, ready to co operate with the Boats, which were detached about Midnight, under the Direction of Lieutenant W. J. Hughes, the senior Officer, and with such good Order was the Attack conducted by him, that the Ship was boarded and brought out, although lying immediately under the Batteries, and mounting herself Eight Guns, without the smallest Loss; and proves to be a Ship from Memel, laden with Timber, Four Hundred Tons Burthen, taken on the 19th of December last, by L'Union Dutch Brig Privateer of Eighteen Guns, on the Coast of Norway. Mr. Williamson, the Purser, Mr. Hepburn, the Boatswain, and Messrs. Dale and Daly, Midshipmen, who were Volunteers in the Boats, Mr. Hughes speaks in the handsomest Manner of; indeed the Behaviour of every Man and Officer in the Ship was so much to my Satisfaction, that had the Resistance been ever so great I have little Doubt of the Success. I am, &c.

WM WOOLDRIDGE.

OFFICE of the COMMISSIONERS appointed by Act of Parliament under the Convention with the United States of America.

Ordered, THAT for the Purpose of preventing the Inconvenience and subsequent Delay which would ensue, if (as occurred under the Sixth Article of the Treaty, and as there is Reason at present to apprehend may occur under the Convention) numerous Claims were kept back till the very Eve of the Expiration of the Term allowed for preferring Claims before this Board; and also for the Purpose of preventing an erroneous Expectation that Claims may, on special Grounds, be received after the Expiration of the said Term, Notice be given to all Persons who claimed at Philadelphia under the Sixth Article of the Treaty of Amity with the United States, and who have not yet availed themselves of the Act of Parliament, and the Instructions contained in the various Notices from this Office, which were published in the London Gazette and different Newspapers, by claiming before this Board, that Claims from such Persons, in the Form of Memorials addressed to the Commissioners, and signed by the Claimants or their Agents respectively, referring to their Claims under the Sixth Article of the Treaty, and stating the precise Amount of each Claim in Sterling Money (which Amount must not exceed the Amount claimed under the Sixth Article, with the Additional Interest thereon) will, as before intimated, be received at this Office on or before the 1st Day of June next; but that the Board are absolutely barred by the Act of Parliament from receiving, after the Expiration of the above Term, any Claim or new Application, on any Ground of Excuse whatsoever. And that for the Reason above assigned, the Board expect that all those who claimed as above under the said Sixth Article, and who think themselves entitled, and mean to claim before this Board, will do so as soon as possible.

By Order of the Commissioners,

J. W. HAY, Secretary.

Great Marlborough Street, Jan. 28, 1804.

Whitchall, 21st January 1804.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the King, that in the Night of Thursday the 22d of December last, about Ten o'Clock, the Report of several Guns was heard in a Wood belonging to and near the House of Francis Ferrand Foljambe, Esq; of Osberton, in the County of Nottingham, whereupon William Hall his Gamekeeper, and several others of his Servants, went out to endeavour to apprehend the Offenders, and having pursued them from the Wood where the Report was first heard to another at some Distance, they all (except William Holmes, one of the Servants of Mr. Foljambe, who was on Horseback) entered the Wood, and in the Middle of it found one William Atkins armed with a Gun, which he presented, threatening to blow out the Brains of the first that came near him; and it was not till after considerable Resistance Atkins was secured: And whereas during the Struggle with Atkins the Report of another Gun was heard on the Outside of the Wood, and immediately afterwards a Cry as of a Person in Agony, and thereupon several of the Servants of the said Francis Ferrand Foljambe, Esq; ran to the Spot, and found there the said William Holmes lying on the Ground dangerously wounded; and the said William Holmes hath deposed, that seeing two Men, one in a Blue Jacket, the other in a Smark-Frock, he rode up to the Van in a Jacket, and endeavoured to secure him, on which the Man immediately fired at him, and then, with his Companion, effected his Escape: And whereas the Circumstances of Two Men of the Names of ——— Smith and William Thornton having been seen in Company with Atkins on the Evening of the Commission of this atrocious Outrage in the Dress described by William Holmes; and it appearing that the said William Thornton that Evening bought Powder and Shot at Rexford; and neither Smith nor Thornton having since been seen or heard of in the Neighbourhood where they resided, strongly authorize the Suspicion that they were Parties in the Perpetration of the Atrocity;

His Majesty, therefore, for the better and more speedily apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of the said Offenders (except the Person who actually fired the Gun, and wounded the said William Holmes) who shall make such Discovery of his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, as that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

C. YORKE.

And, as a further Encouragement for the Discovery of such Offender or Offenders, a Reward of ONE HUND-

DRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons making the same, (except the Person before excepted,) to be paid upon the Conviction of such Offender or Offenders, by the said Francis Ferrand Foljambe, Esq.

Whitehall, January 21, 1804.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that a most daring and scandalous Outrage took place in the City of Chester, on Wednesday the 28th Day of December last, wherein divers Persons, at present unknown, proceeded to destroy the Gates of the Gaol of the said City, and to deliver by Force a Person confined therein;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the daring and scandalous Outrage abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Persons actually concerned in destroying or pulling down, or aiding or assisting to pull down, the Gates of the said Gaol,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

C. YORKE.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

Whereas an Advertisement appeared in the Gazette of December 31, 1803, signed Ignatz Edler von Schwab, Jacob Fr. von der Null, and Joseph Keimer, the beginning of which Advertisement contains the following:

"Whereas the Privileged Imperial Commercial Concern of Mr. Ignatz Edler von Schwab, hitherto carried on under the Firm of Schwab and Company, and conducted in Vienna and London, by the several Partners, has been dissolved by a Plurality of Voices, but more particularly by the late Demise of one of the Partners, Mr. Thomas Erlich; both the Partnership, the Term of which has expired, and the former Firm of Schwab and Company, will henceforth cease to exist."

I the undersigned the resident Partner in London, of the House Schwab and Company, most solemnly protest against any Dissolution, or the Power of the Plurality of Voices towards a Dissolution, or the Pretences that the Partnership has been dissolved by the Demise of Mr. T. Erlich and that the Term of Partnership has expired, every one of these Assertions, being, in my Judgment, in direct Contradiction to the Words and Sense of the Articles of Partnership entered into between the Partners of the above House.

Copy of a Letter from Captain William Selby, Commander of His Majesty's Ship the Cerberus, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated at Spithead, the 26th Instant.

SIR,

I BEG you will be pleased to lay before my Lords and Commissioners of the Admiralty, the enclosed Copy of a Letter written to Rear-Admiral Sir James Saumarez, stating my having captured, in His Majesty's Ships under my Command, the National Gun Vessel Le Chameau, and destroyed another off Cape La Hague, on the Night of the 25th Instant.

I am, &c. W. SELBY.

His Majesty's Ship Cerberus, off Cape La Hague, 26th January, 1804.

SIR, IN pursuance of your Orders, I Yesterday at One P. M. weighed in His Majesty's Ship Cerberus, under my Command, from Guernsey Roads, and having passed through the Little Ruffel, I shaped a Course for Cape la Hague, in order, if possible, to look into Cherbourg before dark; in our Approach to the above Cape, we discovered a Convoy of the Enemy, consisting of Four armed Vessels, steering to the Eastward. We had the good Fortune to cut them off before they reached the Cape, which obliged them to anchor. The Strength of the Tide prevented our reaching them.

I therefore hauled the Wind to the Southward, under a Press of Sail, until after dark, when we bore up for Cape la Hague, and at Midnight saw them coming round the Cape, but so close to the Land that it was considered dangerous to take the Ship near them. However, a heavy Squall of Wind driving them a little further from the Shore, we succeeded in capturing the National Gun Vessel Le Chameau, and driving one on the Rocks, the rest effected their Escape, owing to the Vicinity of the Rocks, which at that Time was not more than a Cable's length from us.

The above Gun Vessel is Three Hundred Tons Burthen, is quite new, carrying Four long Six-Pounders and Two Swivels, and commanded by Francis Galliare Ensign de Vaisseau, having on board at the Time of Capture Fifty-eight Men, Twenty-one of which are Soldiers, fully accoutered. She is calculated to carry between Two and Three Hundred Troops, and appears to be a Gun Vessel fit for His Majesty's Service.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

WILLIAM SELBY.

Rear-Admiral Sir James Saumarez, Bart. K. B.
Commander in Chief, Guernsey.

J. Stephenson, Cashier of Half-Pay.

Whitehall, 21st January 1804.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that in the Night of Thursday the 22d of December last, about Ten o'Clock, the Report of several Guns was heard in a Wood belonging to and near the House of Francis Ferrand Foljambe, Esq; of Osberton, in the County of Nottingham, whereupon William Hall his Gamekeeper, and several others of his Servants, went out to endeavour to apprehend the Offenders, and having pursued them from the Wood where the Report was first heard to another at some Distance, they all (except William Holmes, one of the Servants of Mr. Foljambe, who was on Horseback) entered the Wood, and in the Middle of it found one William Atkins armed with a Gun, which he presented, threatening to blow out the Brains of the first that came near him; and it was not till after considerable Resistance Atkins was secured: And whereas during the Struggle with Atkins the Report of another Gun was heard on the Outside of the Wood, and immediately afterwards a Cry as of a Person in Agony, and thereupon several of the Servants of the said Francis Ferrand Foljambe, Esq; ran to the Spot, and found there the said William Holmes lying on the Ground dangerously wounded; and the said William Holmes hath deposed, that seeing two Men, one in a Blue Jacket, the other in a Smock Frock, he rode up to the Man in a Jacket, and endeavoured to secure him, on which the Man immediately fired at him, and then, with his Companion, effected his Escape: And whereas the Circumstances of Two Men of the Names of ——— Smith and William Thornton having been seen in Company with Atkins on the Evening of the Commission of this atrocious Outrage in the Dress described by William Holmes; and it appearing that the said William Thornton that Evening bought Powder and Shot at Retford; and neither Smith nor Thornton having since been seen or heard of in the Neighbourhood where they resided, strongly authorize the Suspicion that they were Parties in the Perpetration of the Atrocity;

His Majesty, therefore, for the better and more speedily apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of the said Offenders (except the Person who actually fired the Gun, and wounded the said William Holmes) who shall make such Discovery of his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, as that he or, they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

C. YORKE.

And, as a further Encouragement for the Discovery of such Offender or Offenders, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons making the same, (except the Person before excepted,) to be paid upon the Conviction of such Offender or Offenders, by the said Francis Ferrand Foljambe, Esq.

Whitehall, January 21, 1804.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that a most daring and scandalous Outrage took place in the City of Chester, on Wednesday the 28th Day of December last, wherein divers Persons, at present unknown, proceeded to destroy the Gates of the said City, and to deliver by Force a Person confined therein;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the daring and scandalous Outrage above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Persons actually concerned in destroying or pulling down, or aiding or assisting to pull down, the Gates of the said City,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

C. YORKE.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

Copy of a Letter from Captain R. H. A. Bennet, Commander of His Majesty's Ship the Tribune, to William Marsden, Esq; dated at Sea the 30th of January 1804.

SIR,

I BEG you will inform the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that His Majesty's Ship Tribune, under my Command, fell in with this Morning, Cape La Hogue bearing S. S. W. Three or Four Miles, a small Flotilla from Saint Maloes bound to Cherbourg, consisting of Three Brigs and some smaller Boats; as it blew very hard I could only capture Two Brigs, of Two Twenty-four-Pounders and One Eighteen-Pounder each, manned with Fifty-one Seamen, and Fifty Soldiers of the 32d Demi-Brigade. I have sent them to Portsmouth. His Majesty's Ship captured and destroyed a large Boat from La Hogue before she fell in with the Flotilla. I beg Leave to add, that a Frigate, which I take to be the Hydra, captured a Lugger, one of the Flotilla, and I left her in Chase of another Brig.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are Copies, have been received at this Office, from Rear-Admiral Sir John Thomas Duckworth, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Jamaica :

SIR, Echo, Port Royal, Sept. 10, 1803.

HAVING in my Letter of the 17th July, transmitted you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, Captain Bissell, of the Racoon's Letter, on the very spirited Manner in which the Capture of the National Brig Lodi had taken place at Anchor in Leogane ; it is now, with great Pleasure, I add to it, his Account of the Destruction of the National Brig La Mutine, on the Coast of Cuba, wherein it appears a superior Degree of professional Abilities, with great Gallantry, were displayed, and I trust he will be honored with their Lordships' Protection.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

J. T. DUCKWORTH.

Sir Evan Nepean, Bart.

Racoon, off the East End of Jamaica, 20th August 1803.

UPON receiving the Intimation that the French Privateers, which were long since supposed to have been sitting out in the Ports of Cuba, had probably put to Sea, I worked up along Shore from Lucca to the East End of Jamaica to see the Coast clear, and then crossed over to St. Jago de la Cuba, where I saw four French Schooners at Anchor, apparently armed, I of course watched the Port very narrowly, and in a few Days I fell in with Three of them at Daylight in the Morning, Two of which I have captured, after tedious Chases, from their separating on different Courses, and the other I drove on Shore in a small Bay where she was inevitably lost.

On the Wednesday the 17th, at One P. M. I observed a Brig coming along Shore, which soon after hauled her Wind to speak a Schooner which had been avoiding us all Day. At Three they bore up together, under all Sail, with a strong Breeze :—I stood off until certain of fetching them, and then made Sail in Shore. At a Quarter past Four the Brig hoisted French Colours and fired a Gun, still keeping within Half a Mile of the Shore under a Press of Sail. At Twenty Minutes past Four she fired her Broadside at us, and attempted to cross our Hawse, which I was fortunate enough to prevent, for I ordered the Helm to be put hard-a-port to board her, though going Eight Knots at the Time, and fired a Broadside at her, which, from being nearly aboard each other, brought down his Studdingfails, Topsails, &c. he then luffed up and ran on Shore on the Rocks in a small Bay, and struck his Colours. To avoid a similar Fate I was compelled to heave in Stays ; and when we wore round our Stern was nearly in the Breakers. In this Position we fired our opposite Broadside to effect her Destruction. In about half an Hour she hoisted her Ensign again, and I made several short Tacks near her, firing upon her in passing. Towards Sunset her Mainmast went over the Side, and she fell on her Beam Ends. At this Moment Mr. John Thompson, the Master, asked my Permission to go with a few picked Men, and endeavour to burn her ; an Enterprize it would have been unjustifiable to admit of undertaking, from her having landed Boats full of armed Men, and lined the Shores, but the Gallantry of the Master could not fail of exciting my Admiration, and will, I am sure, meet your Approbation. I watched the Brig all Night, and in the Morning her Masts were all overboard, and she lay a perfect Wreck full of Water. I have since learned her Name is La Mutine, National Brig, carrying Eighteen long Eighteen-Pounders. and was full of Men, from Port au Paix bound to St. Jago ; but I have not been able to obtain the Name of her Captain.

I regret that I was not able to secure to the Service so fine a Vessel as La Mutine appeared to be ; but, under the Circumstance of having the Two Lieutenants and Forty-two Men absent in Prizes out of this Sloop's Company, you will, I trust, feel satisfied that no Effort was left untried, and that Mr. Thompson the Master, and the remaining Part of the Crew, have performed their Duty on this Occasion with Credit.

The Schooner which was in Company made her Escape, notwithstanding the Endeavour of Lieutenant Wright, in Charge of One of the Prizes, who used all possible Means to disable her.

I have, &c. AUSTIN BISSELL.

SIR, Shark, Port Royal, October 24, 1803.

THE accompanying Letter from Captain Bissell, of the Racoon, exhibits fresh Marks of his Gallantry and professional Ability, which I am confident will secure him the Honor of their Lordships' Notice and Protection.

Racoon, Port Royal Harbour, Jamaica,
SIR, October 25, 1803.

I BEG Leave to inform you, that in the Afternoon of the 13th October, when standing in for the Coast of Cuba, I observed several Vessels to Windward coming close along Shore, all of whom hauled in towards Cumberland Harbour before Sunset; having heard of the Evacuation of Port-au-Prince, I anchored in a small Bay, in Expectation of seeing them coming past us in the Night; Daylight of the 14th discovered to us Nine or Ten Sail, a few Miles to the Windward of us nearly becalmed; I got under weigh with a fine Land Wind, and chased them, at half-past Six, a Brig, Schooner, and Cutter, (full of Men,) hoisted French Colours, and fired Guns to Windward. The Brig attempted to get in Shore of us, while the other Two, with the Assistance of their Sweeps and Boats, endeavoured to join her. The Land Breeze however carried me within Gun-Shot of the Brig, and after firing a Broadside or Two at her, she struck. I had only Time to send an Officer, and a small Party of Men to secure her, before my Attention was called to the Schooner and Cutter, who had by this Time got nearly within Gun-Shot, and were firing at us. Calms and baffling Airs prevented me from getting nearer to them till Ten o'Clock, when the Sea Breeze set in; at Eleven they bore up together, evidently with a Determination to board us. The Cutter steering for our Bows, and the Schooner hauling out to pass astern, I shortened Sail to receive them, keeping the Brig under sufficient Command to counteract their Design; when within Pistol-Shot I fired a Broadside at the Cutter (which was as speedily returned with long Guns and Musquetry), then wore round, and fired the other into the Schooner, and so on alternately keeping up a running Fight, and preventing either of them from raking us. This Kind of engaging lasted more than an Hour, both Schooner and Cutter keeping up an incessant Fire of Musquetry; nor was it until the Cutter was literally beaten to a Wreck, and had many Men killed, that she struck her Colours. The Schooner seeing her Companion fall, made off under all Sail. Lieutenant Lawrence took Possession of the Cutter with peculiar Alacrity, and I then made Sail after the Schooner with a fresh Breeze. At One P. M. I again got within Gun-Shot of her, and after firing a few Shot she surrendered without further Resistance. After gaining Possession of the Schooner I chased another Brig (which proved to be an American), then stood in Shore to rejoin the Brig I had taken in the Morning, but had the Mortification to find, that while I was engaging the Schooner and Cutter, they had overpowered the Officer, and had run her on Shore on the Rocks, where they had all landed with their Arms. I have however got all my Men back safe. The Brig was called La Petite Fille, National Gun Brig, commanded by Monsieur Piquet, Lieutenant de Vaisseau, and had on board One Hundred and Eighty Troops, including about Fifty Officers of all Ranks. The Schooner La June Acle of Six small Guns, commanded by M. Serin, Lieutenant de Vaisseau, and had on board Eighty Troops. The Cutter L'Amelie, commanded by Monsieur du Puy, Ensign de Vaisseau, and carrying Four Long Guns and many Swivels, with upwards of Seventy Troops. The Two latter were also National Vessels, and had on board Twenty-two Officers.

The Commanders of these Vessels have since told me that they were apprised of our being on the Coast, and that they had planned their Mode of Attack in Cumberland Harbour, having determined on boarding us; their Loss is about Forty killed and wounded, I feel great Pleasure in informing you that I had not a single Man killed; the only Person hurt was Mr. John Thompson the Master, who received a violent Contusion, in the early Part of the Business, which deprived me of the farther Services of a truly brave and meritorious Officer. The active Conduct of Lieutenant Lawrence, throughout the Day, has fully established the Character you gave him, with his Commission. From the perfect Satisfaction the Crew had given me on former Occasions, and their steady and resolute Behaviour on this, I have no doubt if the Three Vessels had succeeded in boarding (which, had the Calm continued, it would be extremely difficult, if not impossible to prevent) they would have met with a Resistance worthy of British Seamen, and that they would have had only to boast of a very dear bought Conquest.

The Damage the Racoon has sustained is immaterial, being principally in her Sails; but the very disabled State of the Prizes, and having expended nearly all the Shot on board, will, I hope, plead my excuse for returning to Port before I was regularly recalled. I have the Honor to be, &c.

SIR, Shark, Port Royal, Nov. 30, 1803.

THE Caracol Passage, the Eastern Entrance of the Harbour of Cape François, having afforded the Enemy the Means of obtaining Refreshments from Monte Christi, and the former Spanish Part of St. Domingo, which I was convinced must protract the Blockade, I directed Captain Loring to place a Frigate at the Entrance of Manchineel Bay, with the Hope of checking effectually that Intercourse, which I have Pleasure in being able to acquaint you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, has been completely performed by Captain Mudge in the Blanche, and the Boats of that Ship, having taken and destroyed Twenty-four Sail of small Vessels in less than a Month, amongst which are the two recited in the accompanying Letters, wherein I feel their Lordships will think great Enterprize and Gallantry has been displayed, and most conspicuously in Mr. John Smith the Master Mate, who I shall directly give an Order to act as Lieutenant till their Lordships' Pleasure is known.

His Majesty's Ship Blanche, Manchineel Bay, 4th Nov. 1803.

SIR,

THIS Morning an armed Schooner was seen coming out of the Caracol Passage, which was instantly attacked by the Launch, under the Command of Mr. John Smith, Master's Mate, which, after a warm Dispute of Ten Minutes, was carried. It is impossible for me to find Words to express his general good Conduct, and his having taken this Vessel, so very far superior to the Launch, and having passed for a Lieutenant these Twelve Months will, I trust, allow of my recommending him for Promotion.

She is one of the finest Vessels (of her Class) I ever saw, and is fit for His Majesty's Service; she had one long Nine-Pounder and Thirty Men when taken; but can mount Eight Six Pounders.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

SIR,

HAVING gained Intelligence that there was a large coppered Cutter full of Bullocks for the Cape, laying close under the Guns of Monte Christe (four Twenty-four Pounders, and Three Field Pieces), notwithstanding her Situation, I was convinced we could bring her off; and at Two this Morning she was masterly and gallantly attacked by Lieutenant Lake in the Cutter, and Lieutenant Nichols of Marines in the Barge, who cut her out; she is Ninety-two Tons Burthen, coppered close up and fastened; with Two Four-Pounders, Six Swivels and Twenty Muskets.

This Affair cost me Two Men killed and Two wounded. I have taken since my last Eleven small Vessels, but chiefly with Passengers.

I am, &c. ZACHARIAH MUDGE.

Blanche—Two killed by the Fort, Two wounded by the Cutter.

French Cutter—Six wounded, Two of them mortally.

I have landed Sixty-nine Prisoners under a Flag of Truce, at Monte Christe, and have Receipts for the same.—Cargo Fifty-two Bullocks.

J'ai l'Honneur d'être, Monsieur, avec beaucoup de Consideration. D. ROCHAMBEAU.

SIR,

Port Royal, 18th Dec. 1803.

HAVING, in my Letter No. 3, by this Conveyance stated to you, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that Gene-

General Rochambeau had made Proposals for capitulating, which, though inadmissible, I thought soon must lead to others more reasonable; the Event has justified my Opinion; but I am sorry to say that Officer, whose Actions are too extraordinary to account for, had, on the 19th ultimo, (previous to his Proposals to Captain Loring, through the General of Brigade, Boyé, and Commodore Barré) actually entered into a Capitulation with the Black General Dessalines, to deliver up the Cape to him, with all the Ordnance, Ammunition, and Stores, on the 30th; I conclude, flattering himself that the tremendous Weather, which our Squadron was then and had been experiencing for three Weeks, would offer an Opening for Escape, but the Perseverance and Watchfulness thereof precluded him from even attempting it. On the 30th, the Colours of the Blacks were displayed at the Ports, which induced Captain Loring to dispatch Captain Bligh, to know General Dessalines's sentiments respecting General Rochambeau and his Troops, when, on his entering the Harbour, he met Commodore Barré, who pressed him in strong Terms to go on board the Surveillante, and enter into some Capitulation, which would put them under our Protection, and prevent the Blacks from sinking them with red-hot Shot, as they had threatened, and were preparing to do, which Captain Bligh complied with, when they hastily brought him a few Articles they had drawn up, which he (after objecting to some particular Parts, that they agreed should be altered to carry his Interpretation on their Arrival at Jamaica) signed, and hastened to acquaint General Dessalines, that all the Ships and Vessels in Port had surrendered to His Majesty's Arms, and with great Difficulty he obtained the Promise to desist from firing, till a Wind offered for carrying them out (it then blowing hard directly into the Harbour); this Promise he at length obtained, and the first Instant the Land-Breeze enabled them to sail out under French Colours, which, upon a Shot being fired athwart them, the Vessels of War fired their Broadides, and hauled down their Colours, except the Clorinde, a large Frigate of Thirty-eight Guns, who unluckily took the Ground Aboard, and was forced to throw most of her Guns overboard, and knocked her Rudder off, when there was great Apprehension for her Safety; and I am informed by the Captains of the Squadron, that we must attribute the saving her (apparently without further Damage) to the uncommon Exertions and professional Abilities of acting Lieutenant Willoughby, with the Boats of the Hercule, who, I trust, will be honored with their Lordships' Protection.

Captain Loring, after seeing the Generality of the Prizes taken Possession of, left the Thecus and Hercule to act as a temporary Rudder to the Frigate, and bring the Remainder with them, bearing away for the Mole, and on the Second summoned the General of Brigade Noailles, who commanded there, to capitulate; this he declined doing, asserting he had Provisions for five Months; and herewith I transmit a Copy of his Letter. The numerous and crowded State of the Prisoners on board all the Prizes, and their being without Provisions, making it necessary for Captain Loring to proceed to Jamaica, he arrived here the Fifth with the Elephant and Blanche, also the Surveillante and Vertu Thirty-eight Gun Frigates, and various other Prizes, leaving the Pique to blockade the Mole, who anchored in this Port the Eighth, and acquainted me that General Noailles had evacuated the Night he refused to capitulate, bringing in with her Five out of the Six Vessels in which the Garrison had embarked, a Brig with the General on board only escaping. I send a Vessel of War to England, with General Rochambeau and those Officers who are said to have participated in his Cruelties at the Cape.

Bellerophon, off Cape François,
23d Nov. 1803.

SIR,

HAVING received Information that General Rochambeau's Intentions are to endeavour to make his Escape in a Schooner, and observing Yesterday Afternoon several Boats pass and repass between the Surveillante, and an armed Schooner laying in the Caracol Passage. I made the Signal for the Launches armed to assemble on board the Blanche, and ordered Captain Mudge to proceed with them off the Entrance of that Passage to intercept her, should she attempt to come out. I directed the Launches to be under the Command of Lieutenant Pileh of the Bellerophon, and at Two A. M. she was very judiciously boarded and taken by the Launches of the Bellerophon and Elephant, without the Loss of a Man killed or wounded, though for a short Time under a very smart Fire from the Enemy's great Guns and small Arms; she proves to be the French National Schooner La Deconvert, commanded by Monsieur Frojan, Ensign de Vaisseau; she had mounted Six Six-Pounders, and Six brass Swivels, and Fifty-two Men; the Enemy had two Men wounded. The Officer commanding the Desirée's Launch being anxious to secure the Passage, got so far to the Eastward of the Entrance as not to observe the Motions of the other Boats, that he unfortunately could not join them, or get near the Schooner till Daylight, or I am sensible from the Character he bears, would have been as vigilant as the other Boats.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Bellerophon, off Fortuda,

November 30, 1803.

SIR,

I HAVE to inform you of the Surrender of Cape François to the General Dessalines on the 18th Instant, when he attacked it at the Head of the Army, and agreed with the General in Chief Rochambeau for Ten Days to complete the Evacuation.

Not having received a second Proposition from Rochambeau during the Suspension of Hostilities between the Two Parties, I endeavoured if possible to learn the Disposition of Dessalines, seeing his Flag displayed on the Forts, as to the Ships of War and other Vessels in the Harbour, and you will see by his Letter to me of the 27th, which I herewith transmit, as well as a Copy of mine to him, the indefinite Mode of Expression he makes Use of. I therefore sent Captain Bligh to explain with him.

On his Arrival in the Cape he met, on the Part of Rochambeau, a strong Desire to agree for the Surrender of the Ships and Vessels, which, from his Declaration to destroy them, I had no Reason to expect. The Articles of Agreement which was entered into I herewith inclose, and hope it will meet your Approbation. Captain Bligh immediately made known to Dessalines the Surrender of the Frigates and Merchant Vessels to His Britannic Majesty, and requested he would give Orders to prevent firing on them, which till then was his Intention; and, after some Hesitation, General Dessalines reluctantly complied. This Morning the Surveillante, Cerf Brig, an Hospital Ship, and Three or Four Neutral Schooners, came out; the Whole were under Weigh in the Harbour, but owing to the sudden Change of Wind they were prevented from proceeding. I am sorry to say, the Clorinde is on Shore under Fort Saint Joseph, and I fear will be totally lost. I have taken Possession of the Vessels that are out, and left Captain Bligh with Hercule, Desirée, and Pique, to complete the Evacuation of the Cape and Monte Christe. When the Elephant joins with the Vertu and Merchant Vessels I left in the Cape, I shall proceed with her and Prizes to Port Royal, leaving the Tartar to blockade the Mole.

I have, &c. JOHN LORING.

SIR,

His Majesty's Ship Bellerophon

NOT having had the Honor to receive your Answer to my Letter of Yesterday, I beg to represent, that from the Tenor of yours of the 22d, I did hope to see your Flag flying this Morning at Fort Picolet.

As I have full confidence you will not rescind the Agreement with General Rochambeau, who intends, if possible, to have more time granted him to escape, and that you will have Possession of the Town, and its Forts, this Afternoon.

I shall then be much obliged if you will send me some experienced Pilots, to conduct a Part of my Squadron into the Harbour, to take Possession of the Shipping. I have the Honor to be, &c.

Downing-Street, February 7, 1804.

EXTRACT of a Dispatch from Governor the Honorable Frederick North, to the Right Honorable Lord Hobart, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, dated Columbo, 8th July 1803.

INCLOSE to you the Deposition of a Person, stating himself to be an Eye Witness of one of the most atrocious Acts of Perfidy and Cruelty ever committed.

Every Particular of the Narration may not be true, but it appears that Candi was attacked in the Midst of a Truce, by the first Adigaar, on the 23d (or I rather believe on the 24th) Ultimo; that Major Davie, commanding the Garrison there, capitulated on the following Day, and that after he left the Fort all the English Soldiers who accompanied him were treacherously murdered in cold Blood.

I cannot believe that Major Davie would have consented to evacuate, on any Terms less favourable than those stated in the Deposition, viz. of being allowed to proceed with Arms and Ammunition, and without Molestation, to Trincomalée, and that Care should be taken of the Sick whom he left behind : For the Fort was rendered, in the Opinion of most military Men, tenable against any Force that was likely to be brought against it, and large Supplies of Provisions had been sent thither, in Addition to those which Lieutenant Colonel Barbut declared to be sufficient for Six Months' Consumption, Two Months ago.

Lieutenant Hufskisson was also on the Road from Trincomalée (as Major Davie must have known) with a Hundred Doolies, under an Escort of One Hundred and Fifty Malays; and when I heard of the Breach of the Truce, I ordered Lieutenant Colonel Hunter to proceed from Trincomalée with Two Hundred of His Majesty's 19th Regiment, and Fifty Malays, to secure the Evacuation which (had it been delayed for a Fortnight) would have been safely effected.

But what I can still less account for, is, that Major Davie, having obtained such Terms, should have consented to lay down his Arms, when he must have felt that the Person who insisted on such an Infraction of Agreement, could have no other Design but that of murdering him and his Men, and when he must, in common with all the Army, have known that a Corps of Forty Europeans in good Health, and of Two hundred Malays, might cut their Way through any Army of Candians to any Part of the Island.

Indeed Captain Mudge, late Commandant of Fort Macdowall, brought off his Men in Circumstances of as great Difficulty; and a small Detachment of Twenty-two invalid Malays, Fourteen Convalescents of the 19th Regiment from Candi, and Sixty Seapoys under Lieutenant Nixon, Ensign Grant, and Ensign Smellie, defended themselves in a miserable little Fort of Fascines at Dembadenia, for more than a Week, against an immense Multitude collected by the second Adigaar, after they had expended their Ammunition, till they were relieved by a Detachment of Fifty Europeans and as many Seapoys, whom I sent under the Command of Captain Blackall of the 51st to bring them down, in which he has succeeded without Loss.

Under the Oppression of so dreadful a Misfortune, it is satisfactory to me to state, that an Opinion formed of a Spirit of Defection in His Majesty's Malay Regiment is perfectly unfounded, some Individuals of that Corps had indeed deserted from Candi; but the great Majority, including all Officers of Influence and Respectability, were staunch to the End. Those who, after the English were separated from them, were forced into the Candian Service, are certainly not blameable, and of those, Five have already escaped and arrived here, who say that all the others are ready to follow their Example.

The Princes of that Nation, who are settled at Columbo, waited on me, as soon as the melancholy Intelligence arrived, to assure me of their Regret, and Indignation at hearing that any Malays had deserted, and of their invariable Attachment to the British Government.

Deposition of the Lascoryn arrived from Kandi.

MILIHANAGE JOANNES, of the Reformed Religion, being duly sworn, deposes, That the 6th of last Month, he was sent, along with Twelve other Lascoryns, by the Town-Major to Kandi; that he passed at Negumbo, where Doolies were put under their Charge, and that he arrived at Kandi, after a Route of about Twelve Days, and that the Lascoryns delivered up the Doolies and other Stores which were under their Charge, to the English Gentlemen.

After remaining there Three Days, they were ordered to return to Columbo with Twelve Doolies, in Eleven of which were sick Europeans, and one which contained Baggage.

These Doolies, with Twelve European Soldiers, as an Escort, passed the River, and stopped upon the opposite Side; that the same Day he heard Firing at Candy; that a great many Coolies, upon hearing the firing, attempted to pass the River; but were stopped by a Malay Sentry.

Several Candians approached the Place where the Doolies and the Sick were, and fired upon them, which was returned by the Europeans and Twelve Malays who were posted there. They fired till their Ammunition was expended, when the Malays jumped into the River, and the European Officer who commanded the Detachment did the same. He does not know what became of all the European Soldiers, of whom he only saw Three cross the River, and one killed by the Candians. That the Lascars, who served the Cannon at that Post, threw the Cannon into the River, and passed to Candi, and that he followed their Example and escaped to Candi; that he does not know what became of the Sick who were in the Doolies.

He went first to the Mandore, where he had been before, but finding many Candians there, he got into the Palace, and remained in the Court where the Malay Soldiers were. The Firing continued until Two o'Clock, when a White Flag was hoisted from the Palace, and the Firing ceased.

That Major Davie, the Captain of Artillery, and an European Malay Officer who spoke Malay, and Two or Three Malay Native Officers, went to the Adigaar, and returned soon afterwards with an Ola from the Adigaar, which he himself read, importing that the Whole might proceed to Trincomalée without receiving any Molestation, and that the Sick should be taken Care of and have Medicine given to them until they were well, when they might either go to Colombo or stay at Kandi.

The Garrison set out on Friday, with their Arms and Ammunition, at Five in the Evening to Alungantotte, where they remained all Night, exposed to a very heavy Rain, the Deponent being with them.

On Saturday Morning Major Davie ordered a Raft to be made to pass the River; several Kandians came and demanded Mootoo Sawmy, who, they said, was not at Kandi. They seized upon him and carried him off. Mootoo Sawmy gave his Sword to Major Davie. The Kandians told Major Davie that it was unnecessary to make Rafts, as next Day a Number of Doneyes would be procured in which they might all pass.

Next Day however, Sunday, no Doneyes came, and it was proposed to send some Person across the River to fasten a Cord, by which they might pass: That he, the Deponent, swam across the River, and fastened a Cord to the other Side, after which he returned, but while he was doing so a Kandian cut the Cord.

Soon afterwards there came an Order from the Adigaar to Major Davie, to make his Men lay down their Arms, and return to Kandi, which, after some Time, they did; that between Kandi and Allungantotte, there is a Village called Gevantotte, where two Cannon were placed, and where the Malays were ordered to separate from the Rest, and proceed to Kandi, which they all did, except four Native Officers, who remained with Major Davie.

Soon afterwards all the Prisoners were taken, two by two, and delivered over to Kandians, who took them to a little Distance and cut their Heads off; that they were likewise going to kill the Women, but this was put a stop to by Order of the Adigaar.

Major Davie, and the Captain of Artillery, with the Four Malay Officers who had not followed their Countrymen, were carried off, as he supposes, to the Adigaar. The Seapoys and Bengal Lascars were not put to death. A Malay Servant of Captain Nouradin, whom he saw, told him that the Two English Officers and the Four Malays were with the Adigaar.

Upon Monday he saw the Two English Officers, and was told they were to be carried to Hargaroonketti, where the King was. In the Evening of that Day the Adigaar collected all the Effects which the English had left, and ordered the Cannon to be fired without Ball, as a Mark of rejoicing.

That having heard afterwards that the Coolies, Lascoryns, &c. might return, he set out on Friday Night, and came to Colombo Yesterday Evening, the 5th or 7th of July.

Taken down by me from the Interpretation of Mr. Jonville and the Mahamodliar, Colombo, 6th July 1803.

Copy of a Letter from the Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B. Admiral of the Blue, &c. to William Marsden, Esq; dated at Ramsgate, the 21st Instant.

SIR,

BE pleased to acquaint their Lordships, that the Hired Cutter Active (2d) has just returned to Ramsgate; and to lay before them the enclosed Copy of a Letter which I have received from Lieutenant Williams, at present acting in the Command of her, acquainting me with his having, Yesterday, fallen in with Sixteen Sail of the Enemy's small Craft, proceeding from Olland to Boulogne, one of which he has captured under Circumstances very creditable to himself and the Cutter's Crew.

I have the Honor to be, &c. KEITH.

His Majesty's Hired Armed Cutter Active (2), off Gravelines, 20th

My Lord, February 1804.

IN obedience to your Lordship's Order to me of the 17th Instant, I proceeded with His Majesty's Hired Cutter Active, under my Command, to cruise off Dunkirk, but the Wind blowing strong from the Eastward, prevented my getting any farther to Windward than Gravelines, where I this Morning discovered Sixteen Sail of the Enemy's Gun Boats and Transports running close along Shore, I immediately gave chase, and at Half past Ten commenced a running Fight, at Eleven the outermost Vessel struck her Colours; she proves to be La Jeune Isabella Transport, fitted for carrying Horses, bound to Boulogne from Ostend; I am sorry to say I was prevented capturing any more of the Enemy's Vessels from their having run so close in Shore, and under the Batteries during the Time I was taking Possession of this Vessel; the Conduct of the small Crew I command, while attacking so very superior a Force of the Enemy, and under their Batteries, within Three Quarters Mile of the Shore, merits my warmest Thanks, and I hope will your Lordship's Approbation.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) JOHN WILLIAMS.

The Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B.

Jovis, 23^o Die Februarij 1804

WHEREAS the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the Merits of the Petition of John Arbuthnot, Esq; complaining of an undue Election and Return for the Borough and Town of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, in the County of Dorset, have this Day reported to the House of Commons,

That it appeared to the said Committee that the Merits of this Petition did in Part depend upon the Right of Election; and that therefore the said Committee required the Counsel for the several Parties to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee Statements, in Writing, of the Right of Election for which they respectively contended:

That, in consequence thereof, the Counsel for the Petitioner delivered in a Statement as follows:

"The Petitioner contends that the Right of Election for Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, in the County of Dorset, is in the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Capital Burgessees inhabiting within the Borough, and in Persons seised of Freeholds within the Borough, and not receiving Alms."

That the Counsel for the Sitting Member, Charles Adams, Esq; delivered in a Statement as follows:

"That the Right of Election in the Borough of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, in the County of Dorset, is in the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Capital Burgessees inhabiting within the Borough, and in Persons seised of entire Freeholds within the said Borough, whether by Descent, Devise, or Purchase, and not split or divided, unless split by Descent or Devise, and not receiving Alms."

That, upon the Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the Sitting Member, the said Committee have determined,

"That the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement, is not the Right of Election for the Borough and Town of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, in the County of Dorset."

That, upon the Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the Petitioner, the said Committee have determined,

"That the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement, is the Right of Election for the said Borough and Town of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, in the County of Dorset."

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated on board His Majesty's Ship the Victory, at Sea, the 16th November 1803.

SIR,

I HEREWITH transmit you, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, Copy of a Letter from Captain Cracraft, of His Majesty's Ship Anson, together with Copy of one therein alluded to from Captain Rainsford, of the Morgiana, giving an Account of the Capture of a French Privateer.

I am, &c. NELSON & BRONTE.

Anson, off Cape Spartivento, Oct. 20, 1803.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the Honor to transmit your Lordship the Copy of a Letter I have received from Captain Raysford, of His Majesty's Brig Morgiana, acquainting me of her having captured La Maguerite French Privateer, of Four Guns and Forty Men, on the 15th Instant.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. E. CRACRAFT.

Right Honorable Lord Nelson, &c. &c. &c.

His Majesty's Sloop Morgiana, off Cape Spartivento, October 16, 1803.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you that, being in chase of Two Vessels on the Morning of the 15th Instant, I observed a Vessel under lateen Sails, with her Sweeps out, haul out from under the Land, and give chase to us, with English Colours and a Red Flag flying. I continued my Course until she came within Gun-Shot, when, discovering us to be a Man of War, she made sail from us. I immediately gave chase, and fired several Shot at her, when she hoisted French Colours, and soon after came to an Anchor. I then sent the Boats under the Command of Lieutenant Lawrence, with Orders to examine her, and, if he met with Resistance, to bring her off.

This Service was executed with great Gallantry by him and the People under his Command, who boarded and carried her under a smart Fire of Grape-

Shot and Musketry. She proves to be La Maguerite French Privateer, mounting Two Six and Two Four-Pounders, manned with Forty Men, Three of whom only remained on board on taking Possession. I am sorry to add, that I had one Seaman badly wounded, who is since dead.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

R. RAYNSFORD.

William Edward Cracraft, Esq; Captain of His Majesty's Ship Anson.

Copy of another Letter from Vice Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated on board His Majesty's Ship Victory, at Sea, the 16th November 1803.

SIR,

YOU will please to acquaint the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that this Morning the Squadron under my Command captured Le Renard French National Schooner, mounting Twelve Four-Pounders, with Six Swivels, and manned with Eighty Men; also Le Titus Transport, having on board Ninety-six Soldiers, from Corsica bound to Toulon.

I am, &c. NELSON & BRONTE.

Copy of another Letter from Vice-Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated on board His Majesty's Ship Victory, at Sea, the 10th January 1804.

SIR,

I HEREWITH transmit you, for their Lordships' Information, an Extract of a Letter from Captain Hart, with a Copy of a Letter from Captain Gore, of the Medusa, giving an Account of the Capture of L'Esperance French Privateer, and the Destruction of Le Socier, on the 8th Ultimo; and beg Leave to express the very high Opinion I entertain of Captain Gore's Conduct in putting to Sea immediately on the Appearance of these Vessels, and his very able Manœuvres in capturing and destroying them. I am, &c. NELSON & BRONTE.

Extract of a Letter from Captain George Hart, of His Majesty's Ship Monmouth, dated Gibraltar-Bay, the 9th December 1803, to the Right Honorable Lord Viscount Nelson, K. B. Duke of Bronté, Vice-Admiral of the Blue, and Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.

I HAVE great Satisfaction in transmitting to your Lordship a Copy of Captain Gore's Letter to me of Yesterday's Date, giving an Account of his having captured a French Privateer off Cabrita Point, called L'Esperance, of Two Twelve and Two Six-Pounders, with Seventy Men; and destroying another, by driving her on Shore. I beg Leave to refer your Lordship to the Particulars of the Capture, &c. as stated in Captain Gore's Letter; and beg Leave to add the high Opinion I entertain of Captain Gore's great Readiness in putting to Sea, and of his able Conduct throughout on the Occasion, which I had the Pleasure to witness.

His Majesty's Ship Medusa, off New Mole Head, Gibraltar, Dec. 8, 1803.

SIR, AS from your Situation you could not see the Cause of the Manœuvres of His Majesty's Ship-Medusa this Day, I have the Honor to acquaint you, for the Information of the Right Honorable Lord Nelson, Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c. that at Ten A.M. I observed a Cutter standing in for the Westward, and Two French Privateers (Felucca rigged) standing out from under Tarrife, and attack her. I immediately ordered both the Medusa's Cables to be slipped, and proceeded to her Assistance; as we approached they hauled from her.

Favourable Circumstances of Wind and Current aided the Medusa's Sailing; and at Eleven o'Clock we opened our Fire upon one (as she crossed on the opposite Tack) with Effect; the other we ran close alongside of and captured, as per annexed Report, then tacked, and continued firing upon the other until she rowed amongst the Rocks, within a Shot of a Battery to the Westward of Cabrita Point. She received so many of our Shot, and from both her Yards being shot away, and nearly all her Oars broken, I have no doubt she is effectually destroyed. I understand she was called La Sorcier, of Two Twelve and Two Six-Pounders, with Seventy Men.

I am, Sir, &c. &c. &c.

(Signed) JOHN GORE.

On Monday the 19th Instant, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies :

On Tuesday the 20th, and Wednesday the 21st Instant, to Lieutenants and their Attornies :

On Thursday the 22d Instant, to Masters and Surgeons, and their Attornies :

After which the List will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every Month, that all Persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them ; and not only bring with them the Affidavit required touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any public Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid their Half-Pay, but also to produce Certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths of Allegiance, required by Act of Parliament, to His present Majesty ; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that Purpose, that the said Attornies do produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Persons they are employed by. When Officers are Abroad on Leave, their Agents are to produce attested Copies of such Leave before the Half-Pay can be paid.

And as, by Act of Parliament, passed in the Thirty-fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious Method for the Payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy ;" it is enacted by the 20th Clause of the said Act, that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer, who shall be entitled to receive Half-Pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near to the Place of his Residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy in London to have such Half-Pay paid at or near the Place of his Residence, in the Manner pointed out by the said Act, Notice is hereby further given, that the Half-Pay ending the 31st December 1803 will commence paying on the 10th Instant ; and all Persons desirous of having their Half-Pay remitted to them may apply as above directed.

The Commissioners appointed at this Office for carrying into Effect the Act for granting to His Majesty a Contribution from Profits arising from Property, Professions, &c. do hereby give Notice, that, on Account of the Difficulty which attends procuring Returns, they will not, in the present Instance, make a Reduction of more than the reduced Scale of the Tax from the Half-Pay of Officers in the Navy. But the full Rate of One Shilling in the Pound will be hereafter charged against such Officers as shall omit to make the Return required by the Act of Parliament to entitle them to the reduced Scale of Tax.
